STATEMENT OF OFFENSE

Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11, the United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, JOSHUA DILLON HAYNES, with the concurrence of his attorney, agree and stipulate to the below factual basis for the defendant’s guilty plea—that is, if this case were to proceed to trial, the parties stipulate that the United States could prove the below facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

The Attack at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021

1. The U.S. Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C., is secured twenty-four hours a day by U.S. Capitol Police (USCP). Restrictions around the Capitol include permanent and temporary security barriers and posts manned by USCP. Only authorized people with appropriate identification are allowed access inside the Capitol.
2. On January 6, 2021, the exterior plaza of the Capitol was closed to members of the public.
3. On January 6, 2021, a joint session of the United States Congress convened at the Capitol, which is located at First Street, SE, in Washington, D.C. During the joint session, elected members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate were meeting in the Capitol to certify the vote count of the Electoral College of the 2020 Presidential Election, which had taken place on Tuesday, November 3, 2020. The joint session began at approximately 1:00 PM. Shortly thereafter, by approximately 1:30 PM, the House and Senate adjourned to separate chambers to resolve a particular objection. Vice President Mike Pence was present and presiding, first in the joint session, and then in the Senate chamber.

4. As the proceedings continued in both the House and the Senate, and with Vice President Pence present and presiding over the Senate, a large crowd gathered outside the Capitol. Temporary and permanent barricades, as noted above, were in place around the exterior of the Capitol, and USCP officers were present and attempting to keep the crowd away from the Capitol and the proceedings underway inside.

5. At approximately 2:00 PM, certain individuals in the crowd forced their way through, up, and over the barricades. Officers of the USCP were forced to retreat and the crowd advanced to the exterior façade of the building. The crowd was not lawfully authorized to enter or remain in the building and, prior to entering the building, no members of the crowd submitted to security screenings or weapons checks as required by USCP officers or other authorized security officials.

6. At such time, the certification proceedings were still underway, and the exterior doors and windows of the Capitol were locked or otherwise secured. Members of the USCP attempted to maintain order and keep the crowd from entering the Capitol; however, shortly after 2:00 PM, individuals in the crowd forced entry into the Capitol, including by breaking windows and by assaulting members of law enforcement, as others in the crowd encouraged and assisted those acts. The riot resulted in substantial damage to the Capitol, requiring the expenditure of more than $1.4 million dollars for repairs.

7. Shortly thereafter, at approximately 2:20 PM, members of the House of Representatives and of the Senate, including the President of the Senate, Vice President Pence, were instructed to—and did—evacuate the chambers. Accordingly, all proceedings of the United States Congress, including the joint session, were effectively suspended until shortly after 8:00 PM on January 6, 2021. In light of the dangerous circumstances caused by the unlawful entry to the Capitol—including the danger posed by individuals who had entered the Capitol without any security screening or weapons check—Congressional proceedings could not resume until after every unauthorized occupant had been removed from or left the Capitol, and USCP confirmed that the building was secured. The proceedings resumed at approximately 8:00 PM after the building had been secured. Vice President Pence remained in the Capitol from the time he was evacuated from the Senate Chamber until the session resumed.

Joshua Dillon Haynes's Participation in the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot

8. The defendant, JOSHUA DILLON HAYNES, lives in Covington, Virginia. On January 5, 2021, defendant traveled from Covington, Virginia to Washington, D.C. The purpose of the defendant's trip to Washington, D.C., was to protest Congress' certification of the Electoral College. On January 6, HAYNES attended the "Stop the Steal" rally and then marched with other protestors to the Capitol.

9. At about 2:30 p.m., HAYNES was on restricted grounds, a part of the mob that had gathered on the Lower West Terrace, outside the East Rotunda Doors. HAYNES was wearing a moto-style leather jacket with an American flag bandana tied around his left bicep, yellow bandana/neck gaiter around his neck, black pants, black head covering pulled down around his neck, and distinctive black shoes with bright green/yellow detailing.

10. At about 2:50 p.m., HAYNES followed a mob of protestors and entered the U.S. Capitol building through the Senate Wing door, which was initially breached at around 2:13 p.m. As he entered, HAYNES witnessed individuals entering the building through a broken-out window next to the Senate Wing door, and an audible alarm was triggered by the door. HAYNES remained in the the building until approximately 3:12 p.m. HAYNES walked throughout the U.S. Capitol, including to the Crypt and inside the office of an U.S. Senator, among other places.

Destruction of Air Conditioning Unit

11. While outside of the building, HAYNES assisted two other individuals in forcibly removing an air-conditioning unit from a building outside the U.S. Capitol and dropped the air-conditioning unit to the ground.

Assault on Media Staging Area

12. At approximately 4:50 p.m., on January 6, 2021, a large crowd made its way to and/or past a media staging area that was set up outside the northeast corner of the U.S. Capitol, on U.S. Capitol grounds. As individuals moved past metal barricades that had been set up around the staging area, media members were forced to flee the area before recovering all their cameras and associated equipment. Numerous members of the crowd began to destroy the equipment, including cameras, tripods, lights, shades, and remote broadcasting equipment that belonged to various media outlets. Numerous members of the crowd yelled inflammatory rhetoric against the members of the media.

13. One member of the media who was forced to flee the scene estimated that the equipment from his particular news organization that was destroyed was valued at between $30,000 and $34,000.

14. At approximately 5 p.m., HAYNES, picked up and slammed down multiple pieces of equipment that belonged to media outlets.

Text Messages

15. HAYNES took several “selfies” inside the U.S. Capitol and at the media staging area and sent the images via text messages to his associates. HAYNES sent a text message on January 6, 2021 from inside the office of a U.S. Senator to an associate and stated, “I’m inside Congress he stormed inside.” A short time later, HAYNES sent the text, “we *”. HAYNES and the associate continued to exchange text messages about what was being reported by the live news about the events occurring at the U.S. Capitol:

HAYNES: “I’m inside.”

Associate: “Breaking windows to get in”
“The People did.”

HAYNES: “I know I crawled through the window.”

Associate: “Erase this.”

HAYNES: “What did Congress do did they certify Joe Biden?”

Associate: “a Fri [sic] said he gave a speech all I know.”

HAYNES: “No because we storm inside they stop debating and said the army is going to have to do it decide who’s president.”

16. While inside the U.S. Capitol, HAYNES sent images to another associate along with the text, “We are inside the Congress the Senate we stormed inside.” Later on January 6, 2021, after the equipment at the media staging area was destroyed as described above, HAYNES sent to the same associate a text indicating another individual had said, “said dont [sic] be like antifa tearing stuff up.” HAYNES replied, “ahhhh tooooo late,” “broke lotsa stuff,” “lol.” HAYNES then sent an image with the message, “We attacked the CNN reporters and the fake news and destroyed tens of thousands of dollars of their video and television equipment here's a picture behind me of the pile we made out of it." This image shows HAYNES standing in front of the destroyed equipment at the media staging area. HAYNES sent the following to the same associate:

HAYNES: "They had to run away from us and leave all their equipment so we destroyed it"

"i Kicked the fake news ass."

Associate: "Lmfao."

HAYNES: "ahhhhh I liked it too I have already seen a report of it and I am in the video destroying the stuff but I'm wearing a mask,"

"I had to keep my face covered,"

"I want to get busted for tearing up the nations capital [sic] and the fake news."

"Well back God we fucking stood up today that she will go down in history for thousands of years no one is ever storm the capital [sic] like that,"

"I mean we broke down the doors and windows and just went the fuck in,"

"fight the cops push them back and went in there."

17. On February 14, 2021, HAYNES sent an image to the same associate showing the FBI images of HAYNES depicted in the FBI's online Photographs for #203-AOM A-D that were posted on February 2021. HAYNES followed the image with the following texts: "erase immediately," "aom = assault on media." The associate replied, "Damn." Then HAYNES sent a face palm emoji, commonly used to express frustration, embarrassment, or regret at the clumsiness or ineptness of a person or situation.
