CNN fact checker claims two of our examples are inaccurate

This is also incorrect, according to Newton County's Board of Elections.
A spokesperson for the board told me Blalock's wife voted as "Mrs. James Blalock" which caused the mix up.

This is false.

The Elections & Voter Registration director in Jackson County, GA tells me that Linda Kesler did not vote -- she was removed from voter rolls in 2003, when she passed.

According to the director a completely different person, Lynda Kesler, did legally vote.
