Good Evening [REDACTED] – please see below for a series of Parler posts we received through the DC USAO. I don't believe there has been any legal process at this point.

Can you please see if there is anything Guardian on this. No direct threats, and certainly an interest in Pelosi.

If you can please open a case in RMS to document and advise on the status of any FBI investigation I would appreciate it. If this becomes more I can assign a TAS agent to assist.

Thank you,

This is what I discussed with you in our meeting this afternoon. Jack/Julie- let's see if our team can dig a little further for any nexus to MOC's and share with MPD for references on shooting a cop. Jeanita-see what our team can run out on it. Thx.

Hope you're well. I assume USCP is well familiar with the various message boards and variety of broad spectrum threats/threat comments like this? If it were something more specific as to a particular victim and time/place threatened, I would flag with higher priority. But let me know how you have been handling; I have to assume the volume of these has been extremely high in recent months.

Good morning Jon,

I hope that you had a great holiday season and got to spend some quality time with the family. I'm assuming 2021 has already started off better considering the WFT is now in the playoffs. Who knew the curse from the team name could be lifted so quickly?

In any event, one of the AUSAs that I supervise found some interesting material online over the weekend (see below) and I had him forward the info to Larry Grasso. I just wanted to get your take on whether this was something I should notify District Court of as well and/or another agency (FBI). It might be premature but figured I'd err on the side of caution.

Hope all is well.

Hi Bryan, Larry,

Over the weekend I came across a Parler (like twitter, but more extreme) account that had some fairly concerning posts. After discussing with Chip, my immediate supervisor, he recommended that I send you this information.

The account is: <https://parler.com/profile/Zoomzoom2/posts>

Here's a small sampling of what caught my eye (these are just posts from last 2 days). All of it is geared towards the upcoming Jan. 6 demonstrations.

I agree with most all of what you wrote. We are going to execute the worst of the traitors on the spot and you know exactly who they are. The wall we set them before the firing squad will be the wall of the Capitol. The bullet impact marks and blood stains are never to be repaired and a placard installed commemorating the second 1776. We also March across town to Obama's residence and do the same. SCOTUS gets the same treatment for the 4 that refuse to rule according to the Constitution. Treason has a steep price and those guilty must pay it. No exceptions.

I have almost 386 combat vets coming with me armed and if all goes well in Ga we will be there late morning.. you won't be able to miss us. I live in a military town with tons of vets. Some ex spec ops and many shoot 3 gun competitively. We all will each be carting 1K plus M855 or SS109

@frenetic I have two teams totally ping nearly 400 vets taking care of shit in GA on the 5th election and will be headed DC way when done we are all armed and carrying long rifles. Metro police wants to try anything and they will have a mess on their hands, these are some really pissed off vets and won't hesitate to shoot a corrupt cop if they try to interfere.

Make sure you bring your modern day pitchforks, torches and plenty oh hay to sling. Preferably the M855/SS109 kind. Cops body armor not able to graze on it.

March in with large groups of armed patriots. Do not let cops deter you. If they confront advise they will be fired upon as they no longer have any authority over the people. Be prepared to defend yourselves.

This will be a momentous time in our history and you certainly want to be there and part of history. This is where we declare 1776 again and begin to take our country back. Bring your modern day pitchforks with you. Saving our republic requires decisive action. Don't worry about DC gun laws and police. There will be so many carrying Patriots they will stay away and after the 6th there laws will cease to exist as will their government. Be there...i will join you all as soon as I am done cleaning up the mess in GA.
