Kylie Jane Kremer ([REDACTED])

As far as Cindy goes, she was a volunteer for the organization for about a year. She's an A-type personality that gets stuff done and that was beneficial to our organization. She wanted a title to give herself gravitas and we agreed to her suggestion of "director of coalitions". However, she was very controlling and not a team player. She ruffled A LOT of feathers and ultimately members of our team said if she was involved they were not continuing with WFAF. Our goal was to get through 12/12 with her as there were too many moving parts with the bus tour and the 12/12 event that it wasn't realistic time wise to replace her.

The morning after our Dec 12th event, Cindy had breakfast with Alex Jones (unbeknownst to us at the time)... This is right after Alex attacked/threatened me and the police were involved on 12/11. When Cindy realized that she was no longer going to be a part of WFAF or the bus tour, she went and removed WFAF from the NPS permit for 1/6. When we learned of this and notified NPS with all necessary documentation, NPS fixed the situation. Cindy was removed from the permit and it was placed back in WFAF's name.

If Cindy worked with Alex Jones for money in return for a speaking spot for 1/6, she did so on her own volition and not as a representative of Women for America First. The question is, if she agreed to accept money from Alex Jones, where did that money go because we didn't receive it nor were we ever told about it.

At no point was Alex involved with WFAF even behind the scenes. Cindy was the one working behind the scenes with him to try and circumvent everything we were doing and make herself the kingmaker.

Jones nor Cindy introduced Amy to Caroline. Amy has known Caroline since the beginning of the tea party days back in 2009.

She attempted to continue as a part of our organization which was rectified immediately. As such point, all of her actions, communications, and organizational involvement with other groups occurred independently.

-I was told that Julia Jenkins Fancelli, heiress of Publix supermarkets, put in about $300,000 toward the Ellipse rally. She came into the picture through Caroline by way of Alex.
-She had wanted the event to be a "coalition" event and specifically NOT headlined or credited to the Kremers/Women for America First. Can you tell me why she had that condition?
-Her money came to WFAF anyway, through Caroline.
-Was this why Caroline was so adamant about including Jones and Ali in the event, bringing them in, etc? Did she ever tell you about that condition of Fancelli's?
Why did Fancelli want to fund this event in particular? Did you ever speak to her about her interests?
-Did Fancelli ever express her displeasure about WFAF with you guys? I was told she was upset when she found out WFAF was indeed a major part of the events.
-On your earlier note - were you aware that Caroline came to WFAF by way of Alex Jones?

The other question has to do with violence. Some of the other organizing groups are pushing back on the idea that WFAF/you guys were concerned about Jones and Ali on the count of violent rhetoric, noting that people on your bus tours had also espoused similar language. I think Buzzfeed recently published a story recounting all of that. Those organizers felt that you and Amy were more concerned with making sure to receive the credit than about concern about Ali and Jones' language. I know you earlier mentioned the police report, so it's clear you've had longstanding concerns about Jones. Is there any response you'd say for those critics?

"Abramson's arguments not only denied political realities and delegate math as the race wore on; they often denied basic human logic," McKay Coppins declared, in The Atlantic. "Long-winded and breathless," Colin Dickey wrote, in The New Republic, adding that Abramson has a "conspiracy mind-set" in which "even the most mundane logistical details reveal a deeper, preordained plot."

It is Dustin's & the Pastors.

If I remember correctly, it was shut down not too long after they started using the service because they had the word "militia" in a text.

I think that is what I remember hearing.

Still looking through emails to see what texting service (number & key word) Ali might have used. I remember him saying they had a service, but I don't remember anything else.

Give me a few and I'll let you know what else I can find.

From Twitter DM:

Hi Ms. Kremer. Curt Devine with the news network CNN here. I'm writing because my colleagues and I are working on a two-hour documentary about individuals who came to Washington DC on January 6th. A goal of this documentary is not to focus on the events of that day at the Capitol (which have been heavily covered), but rather to understand more about the perspectives of people who were there and to more fully explore the political context and values surrounding that day and the election at large.

In all seriousness, we would value including your perspective in this. I'm not sure if you would even entertain the idea of this, but we would be very interested in hearing your take. Given the length of this project, this would not be about simply getting one sound bite from you, but would be a long-form interview that could be a through-line of much of the documentary. We would want to hear from your reflections on all of this and what you think people (like typical CNN viewers) may not understand.

If you're open to considering this, please give me a call or feel free to write back here. I'd be happy to speak more off record about this. Thanks either way,

Curt Devine

"We have no idea who Jessica Watkins is. We do not know how she ended up with VIP credentials. Additionally, we absolutely did not hire her to do security at the January 6th event at the Ellipse. Security was being handled by the Secret Service. The only private security we hired was for our own personal protection and Jessica Watkins was not a part of that team."

Still on background. I have already answered the question.

If you check the timeline, POTUS had already tweeted about Jan 6th back on December 19th and again on December 27th. So, to Katrina's point, it was a reasonable assumption.

I'm not going on the record. This is ridiculous so write your story and we'll handle it accordingly.

Hi ladies. Is there any reason end these original tweets are coming from Kylie instead of Amy?

Just making sure that I'm not missing a strategy.

1/3/2021 10:48 AM

Kylie Jane Kremer ([redacted])

They are originally from my mom, I've just made additional tweets and those have been the ones that have been picked. I've been sending stuff to my mom to post but as we know she works on her own timeline. If there is something specific you want me to tweet for her, please let me know. The one you did send, I tweeted out for her so we weren't waiting on her

Former President Donald Trump's post-election political team has fired one of its top fundraisers who played a key role in organizing the January 6 "Save America Rally" that preceded Trump supporters' attack on the US Capitol, Republican strategists and Trump advisors told Insider.

The Trump-approved group America Alliance fired veteran fundraiser Caroline Wren at the end of last month, according to the Trump advisors. Other Trump fundraising groups sent cease-and-desist letters to Wren demanding she not cite Trump in her own efforts to recruit high-dollar donors, they said.

A Republican familiar with the break-up said Wren left America Alliance but wasn't fired, and that Trump associates did not send her cease-and-desist letters from any of the myriad political groups claiming the Trump mantle.

Trump advisors told Insider that Wren tried to control Republicans donors and fought with other pro-Trump operatives. Wren's forceful entrance on the Trump fundraising circuit at a series of events in late April particularly spooked Trump's advisors, the strategist said.

"She was moving in on their turf, so I'm not surprised to see they're gunning at her now," a Republican strategist said.

"Caroline was terminated last month," said one Trump advisor familiar with her departure. "She was causing a lot of chaos and not raising money" in the months after Trump lost the 2020 presidential election.

But other Republicans said Wren got caught in the turbulence of Trump's ever-changing, post-election political efforts as she attempted to extract herself from Trump's political team and start her own, yet-to-be-named network of conservative donors to bankroll Republican races up and down the ballot.

"She's just a fundraiser that emerged out of nowhere after the election and was in the middle of everything," the Republican strategist of the spat between Wren and Trumpworld.

This was my text to Ali on Nov 12th at 10:40PM

Ali, no one is trying to take anything away from anyone.

You got our way ahead of your skis and shouldn't have. You are hell bent on doing everything your way, even when others are not on board.

You have been asked repeatedly by some powerful people to stop using "Stop the Steal" as a brand and marketing, but you don't care. You just continue to do what you want to do without respect or regard to anyone else.

If this were Tea Party Patriots, Eagle Forum, Moms for America, etc., they would never allow you to come in and take over and run an event that was being hosted by their organization. They would probably include you in the program, but you wouldn't be calling the shots and you know that.

So now, not only do we have the permits, but we are covering all of the costs of this event and the costs are well in excess of $50,000. Instead of helping raise money to cover the actual costs of the event, you are soliciting money to go into your personal account. That's not okay. Full stop.

But that isn't all. WFAF is not only responsible for the costs, but for the liability too. This isn't rockets. You are smarter than that Ali.

I'm willing to work with everyone and want everyone to be part of this, but I'm not going to allow you to control an event that our team has worked their hearts and souls out for this week.

This is a team effort. This is not about you. This is not about me. It's not about any one of us. This is about the people that are dropping everything to come from across the country.

Honestly, it is a slap in the face that you would do this and to think it is okay is beyond unbelievable. It is not okay. I'm tired of being pushed around by people on our own side.

and then to learn that Brandon went after us last night and not only did you not stand up for us, but instead, aligned yourself with him...that speaks volumes.

I don't have time for all of this bullshit. I don't have time to get on conference calls daily. I have barely been on SM the past couple of days because I've been so swamped.

The way you have pitted an entire group of people against me and Kylie is unacceptable and I will not tolerate it. It goes beyond pitting them against us, it was done to prop yourself up. I have no time to deal with this nor do I want to. You crossed so many lines and have personally lied to me. I don't deserve that and even more so the people in this movement don't deserve that.

The event is happening and we will be inclusive as we always are, but considering we are the ones holding the permits, paying for the event, working directly with NPS, MPD & other agencies, accepting the liability, etc., it only makes sense that the WFAF board will make the final decisions on everything.

As I've stated many times, I don't have time for this. I'm done.

You are more than welcome to be involved, but this is not the Ali show.

I can't believe that this is happening because of someone who I thought was my friend. This has literally sucked the wind from my sails. That makes me sad and I'm very disappointed.

We never even got to the point of discussing the speakers because Caroline went rogue and leaked her list to buzz feed.

Then when potus got involved it didn't matter to go back and re discuss.

Patrick Byrne was not on that list, I don't think

Could try to challenge the request as an unconstitutional infringement on private association (goes back to 4/1/2020). But since it's only asking for public/government records in archive, no way to stop it. Just draws attention to the witch-hunt.

I don't think it is worth the effort and money to fight it.

I just went through my emails to the WH during that time and there were only 6...

1. HBD to Ivanka
2. Thanks for getting us into the ACB swearing in ceremony
3. Invite to Ivanka to speak at Freedom Plaza on Nov 14th
4. Email to Julia Hahn about WH Christmas Tour for WFAF
5. Email to Austin Mitchell about WH Christmas Tour for WFAF
6. Followup to Austin Mitchell

They are going to be so disappointed!

Not when communicating with any govt entity. It should always be assumed it will be for public consumption.

Now if they want our personal communications that don't involve a govt entity, that's a different story.

We have taken in more people who we know nothing about than Americans or interpreters. And we are providing them housing at army bases too... I hope I heard that wrong...

This goes to my exact point... the only people on the permit are me, my mom, Jennifer and James. I had to put in writing to talk with Justin but she made it clear he's just additional support and not responsible according to the actual permit.

We are responsible dealing with NPS. There has to be communication with us to them so that they continue working with us and don't pull the permits.

Then to get this email from NPS about shortening our program and I can't even communicate that to Caroline.

All - I'll be meeting with POTUS tomorrow before the leaves for GA to over potential speakers at the ellipse.

Please let everyone know that speaking at the ellipse is no guarantee, so if people are under the impression they are speaking on the 6th, we should make sure there is an alternative stage available.

1/1/2021 10:19 PM

Kylie Jane Kremer ([REDACTED])

Totally get it. We are team players and are grateful to work with y'all... but it's out of line to tell me we're only here because Caroline got us here and we have no say whatsoever.

Honestly, between you and I, I know I don't really know her well but it seemed to me like she was a different person and really over the top telling me what I was and wasn't going to do because she was in front of the family. It not only was unnecessary because we've been working really well together through some tough situations but it really changed my opinion of her that she has that little respect and regard for our work because we aren't an official campaign deemed organization.

1/1/2021 10:22 PM

Katrina's iPhone ([REDACTED])

She doesn't know, and had never heard of you guys. This isn't her world, so she (they) have very short fuses with "sandbox" issues. I don't know what's she's been told, but I do know the donor is a large donor to one of the other organizations and may feel that too many accommodations have already been made. I'll take the heat on that one, just try not to take it personally.

1/1/2021 10:24 PM

Kylie Jane Kremer ([REDACTED])

The whole working as a team with people who have slandered us, maligned us to put us in dangerous situations (Alex Jones that now there is a warrant out for his arrest because of what he did to me), etc to then turn around and have a top down approach doesn't logically work to me. I'm not taking it personally but it's made me go more towards my mom's line of thinking to not give any more concessions, which is probably opposite of what she thought she was doing.

1/1/2021 10:27 PM

Katrina's iPhone ([REDACTED])

They may donate to TPA but that's not their primary. I would just keep all the interval stuff quite and lead with a positive attitude.

At this level, no one entertains emotions. Not even a little. Things can charge up to the moment POTUS takes the stage.

Just wait until there are more details.

Bottom line, I've set you up will the entire trump event team all the way down to a "Trump" looking website. This isn't grassroots anymore.

So, are you used as a pass through? YES! Your brand hosting the President of the United States on Whit House grounds on a historic day. Win!

YOU will be able to claim that with the highest production reel possible for donor recruitment.

We need to explain to her that this isn't about Jan 6th. This is about Jan 7th and beyond.

1/1/2021 10:39 PM

Katrina's iPhone (+ [REDACTED])

No more being upset. Positive vibes only. No need to upset her because the day will be amazing. We'll get through it day by day. Hour by hour if that what it takes.

I'll explain to her that she won't make everyone happy, it's actually not her job. Her job is to lead and being a leader is making tough decisions that benefit her organization as whole.

It's not 2010 anymore, and it's lonely at the top. :/

And side note about everything that is going on... I keep telling you my mom is in a funk/ feeling like everyone is against her. She didn't speak AT ALL on Nov 14th. She keeps pushing me to the front and wants me to be the face of things despite every reason we keep telling her about her reputation, credibility, hardwork, etc. So while I do push her to do things, she is not feeling good about herself and wanting to be the face. She wants me to be the face of the organization. Since I am her daughter, I am walking a fine line here because I obviously would prefer it to be her and because she deserves it, while being sensitive to the mental space she is in. This isn't to be repeated but I think that's why she isn't tweeting stuff I ask her to.

Say

1/22/2021 9:29 AM

Katrina's iPhone ([REDACTED])

Still on background. We were concerned because she was aggressively pushing to have fringe participation in our event. Our credentials disappeared the night before the event and her people were posting our credentials in their possession on social media so we felt like she was going to try and take over the event on the day of the event. She started moving names on chairs trying to position them as close to the stage as possible, so we had no other choice but to call the authorities to prevent her from forcing the fringe on the President's stage. Things settled down momentarily once the authorities arrived.

We have done events for years, and they're always patriotic and positive. This one was the same, with the exception of Caroline Wren blurring the lines. This has all been so stressful, I don't have anything else to add.

Honestly, she's a nobody who somehow always gets funding and does not do anything that's of any significance.

Reason I'm calling about her is to ask if you knew her.

Ryan Rhodes just called me to ask if I knew her well enough to call her and ask her to stop talking to the press. Not sure how she is even involved in all of this other than that she works with Ali.

She just keeps giving these drip drip stories a little more info and name dropping people like Megan powers, etc that were part of advance stuff and keeps it going in the media

It's okay...we left the city and laying low for a while.
The amount of hate and death threats we are getting are unlike anything I have ever seen.
Kylie and I are afraid to go home right now.
We have had so many rallies and visited the Hill for various reasons over the years. I have NEVER seen anyone behave inappropriately. That is not who we are and not what we do.
The entire situation is horrible. No one had to lose their life that day and it's heartbreaking.
Praying for everyone and our nation.
I hope you are doing okay.

What should have been an amazing day, turned into something it should have never been because of some asshtats.

I think it is time the movement purge itself of the bad and evil. I believe that will take care of itself in due time.

I'm hoping that we can put this all behind us and focus on moving forward.

All you have to say is "I had no such discussion with Meadows"

6/15/2021 1:19 PM

Amy Kremer ([REDACTED])

I never had that conversation with Meadows.

The last time I talked to Meadows was Dec 10th and at that point, we hadn't even had the Dec 12th rally.

6/15/2021 1:19 PM

Amy Kremer ([REDACTED])

1/6/2021 1:24 PM (Viewed 1/6/2021 1:28 PM)

Caroline Wren (██████████)

I just got your messages. Again, I do not understand what you're talking about or what you think happened. I arrived at 5:30am with my team, went through mags and then went up to do seating and then worked backstage on Kimberly and dons speeches. My team brought the credentials to the checkin table as instructed and I never communicated with them again. The plan as I understood it was the Kremer's and my team would all run registration and check in their own guests and all the credentials would be there, and that's exactly what happened. I never instructed them to not let someone in and in fact I never communicated with them or anyone from registration from 7am on. Additionally, I never touched the Kremer's seating, nor did I ever speak to anyone today from the Kremer's team. I also have no clue what you're talking about in relation to releasing permits? The permits were in the Kremer's name? Everyone on the operations side of this event was very confused about your accusations against me, because literally none of that happened. So I have no idea what got you spun up.

2. Ali - (Akbar) changed his name after being convicted of theft and credit card fraud in 2007 and 2008. His donations are going into his personal bank account.
"May God have his vengeance on the Hotel Harrington," Ali Alexander, a lead organizer of Wednesday's rally, said in a Twitter video Monday."
3. Alex Jones - obvious
Once we have that, I'll inform the rest of the speakers so they can decide if want to politically align themselves.

Times are being adjusted for smaller program. I would say sometime around 10am. I'll let you know when it's scheduled.

Ali is on stage both days, just not POTUS stage. I did not go into Ali's background the and possible new Federal charges that he's facing so thank you for going through that with him.

Ali thinks he's on POTUS stage, and they would be disastrous because he would have the media headlines for the event.

And yes, so much easier this way. Heavy weight lifted. It was easier than I thought because he really didn't want anyone speaking so moving everyone made my life easier. So, thank you.

1/5/2021 12:19 PM

Katrina's iPhone ([redacted])

Ok -

With the shorter program with his requested breaks and one hour between POTUS and the program, we have you leading the Senate block just before Senator Hawley at 8:45, then Marsha Blackburn, then Ted Cruz.

Dan Scavino ([redacted])

Hey Kat, thanks! I never spoke with Ali, as told ya a few days prior, when he claimed to be — or anybody he is affiliated with, ever. He is a fraud, and the DJT tweet on December 19 had absolutely nothing to do with Ali, or any of his people. It was Kremmer group he was aware of, as organizing a rally, to my knowledge at that time. He does do his own tweets. Thanks for your help on this one. I'm not aware of anyone talking to Ali—I know factually it wasn't me or DJT.

Is it crazy to want to do a "Welcome home & Thank you President Trump" rally in FL on January 20th?

The crowd will be bigger than Joe Biden's crowd at the inauguration.

All I know is that someone leaked a list of "speakers" that the WH had not seen or approved, so I had to get on a plane today (in pain) to go and sort this craziness out.

I submitted a list with everyone on it including you and Don speaking before POTUS. (per usual) and it came back very minimal.

It's so frustrating because I've never had so much interference.

Ali Akbar changed his name because, he was convicted of theft and credit card fraud in 2007 and 2008. His donations are going into his personal bank account. List goes on.
